OBJECTIVE

I am a creative person with an extraordinary ability of thinking on my feet, willing to go an extra mile to get tasks completed and maintain composure and grace under pressure with excellent leadership, problem solving and people skills and with an uncommon zest for contributing to various aspects of business, enterprise and knowledge. My objective is to reach heights of success in my career where it provides me constant learning, while enhancing my leadership qualities and ability to work in a team. Learn by doing, do by finishing.
